Assetto Corsa: an open world racing simulator with accurate reproduction of the real-life vehicle's surface, featuring the most realistic physics currently available. Supported by a competitive development team and officially-licensed cars, Assetto Corsa features the best content available in a racing simulation, allowing players to experience real driving sensations through high fidelity graphics, authentic gear choices, and fully-fledged career modes. Controllers and steering wheels are fully simulated in the game, alongside touch-screen inputs. All features are adjustable and configurable within the game's software setup, with all options made fully available for the first time in a racing simulation. Players can also use movement controls to set track changes or drift in a dynamic and accurate way. Assetto Corsa is a 4-year project by KUNOS Simulazioni, a developer with an established record of work on the racing sim genre, including the Proving Grounds and the long-running WBCR, and a team of passionate and professional sim racing drivers: the best of the best have chosen to work together to lead the development of this simulation. More than 50 million players have visited the Assetto Corsa website to date, and have already downloaded the Assetto Corsa client to enjoy the driving experience that will keep many fans coming back for more. iii: Revolving Wonderland [Mac/Win] (Final 2022)

Chapter 1: The Arrival: After arriving to the prison a guard informs you to go inside. Play as Mark and explore the first cell, which houses a group of 2 dead inmates. A strange noise is heard. It sounds like a child crying but it is not. Mark finds a abandoned cell, which has a string of words written on the wall. Open the door and make your way to the next area. Chapter 2: The Deep: Search for the previous cell, which holds a group of 8 inmates, who are all asleep. Sometime during the night a loud buzzer was activated, ending up with a group of 6 inmates that can also see the light of day. Mark goes to the next area, which is the cafeteria. Its where all the lights are off and even the kitchen staff is accounted for. Mark enters the back kitchen and finds the last cell, which holds 6 inmates, who are also awake. The cell leader of the group, Krauser, commands 4 of his goons to attack Mark. The goons make their move, and are no match for Mark. Mark then begins to stealth in the kitchen, where he finds the spice cabinet. Mark quickly opens the door, and finds a cookbook with pages missing. Mark finds the last inmate alive, who is the prison warden. The warden informs Mark of the situation, and adds that he doesn't have a master key to the cell, as he found out last night. The warden tells Mark of his scientific background, which was a tragedy for all of them. He says that the warden's wife, Carol had multiple child abuse cases, and was taken out with her last. The warden tells Mark that he should leave and return after dark. Now it is time for Mark to make a decision. He can either hope his girlfriend is alright, or he can save everyone on this planet. Mark picks door B, and an alarm begins to sound in the prison. Mark goes back to the cafeteria and takes out a trash can lid and bashes Krauser's head with it, making him pass out. Chapter 3: Death's Gambit: Mark makes his way to the pharmacy, where he finds a man's body, wearing pajamas. The man is alive, but barely. Mark goes into the room, and he finds out that he's a doctor. His job is to give the poor patients a chance to survive, as it is very important for the healthy inmates. Mark questions the doctor about those and Where to Find It! I am telling you a story today of my journey into classic gaming and Reddit and the wonder that I have found. Ever since I began playing videogames I have come to appreciate the medium in a way only the most arcane of musicians do. It is a medium that allows for creativity and creativity stretches those limits even further when one can actually live that creation. RPGs and other Videogames have allowed me to be a part of an experience like none other. That's what got me started on a very curious path: one that led me to the finest the medium has to offer and then back. I began as a mere listener, one who held no expertise in a moment if truth be known. I joined the Xbox discord; aptly named "Xbox Wars" this little Goldmine allowed me to meet some of the gamers, the community that makes games. My first all out snarl was one that the most well known among that clan up and included a wise man by the name of JackOHM, A simple message requesting a Dragonforce conversation began a path that ended in some amazing events. It lead to my becoming an honorary member of the guild. I wrote records and I met up with the man himself in a Discord, a man who I never expected to meet up with; The Dragon, Highranking Staff member with a quest for revenge, a man who is remembered within that Xbox Clan and that is fine because he is that type of man: He is someone worthy of such a reputation. A bit of background on the Dragon to give some insight... Well, if you are a Dragonplayer you probably know him for his prominent place in the community. He loves to talk to people and communicate his thoughts and opinions on the games, the world and the community. That is the real purpose of his doing what he does: to inform and entertain. He certainly has both down to a science for he is known to be one of the most genuine people I have ever met. He is really a good hearted individual who makes you feel welcome in a community full of people you probably feel you could never be friends with outside that forum. He has very quickly become one of my favorite people in gaming and everyone wants to chat with him about their games. His wit is something you don't want to miss but at the same time his "meta" humor is something to write home about. His knowledge of games is without issue and his dedication to the issues and the community is second to none
