Call your local Sherwin-Williams paint store and they should be able to advise you. Or, get out the pen and paper and do some rough colour-matching. If you're a real stickler for colour (and your walls aren't going to stand up to that anyway) then simply do your best to match and be happy with that. Alternatively you can get a Sherwin-Williams paint colour guide from your local paint store. - The challenges of working with tiles, bricks and stonework are not to be underestimated. The tiling can be a pain in the ass, especially in bath and shower areas. Bathtubs need to be caulked as otherwise water gets in between the vinyl tiles and bricks and you have leaks. But once that's done, you'll be able to bathe in style. We've said it before and we'll say it again. Don't skimp out with paint. You're not decorating your home, you're maintaining it and without a quality paint job it's a lot more difficult to do so. Plus, it's good to have extra money on hand in the spring time. Try this out, rent a dumpster, pay a professional and come away with a whole lot more than you would have otherwise. I will never buy another brand of paint ever again. I mean the Sherwin Williams paint that they showed on the Sherwin Williams show was the worst paint I've ever seen and smelled so nasty! I am still coughing up pink paint and it's almost a year later :(Not very happy with my experience and don't recommend.
