As a new class, the Tarnished can be equipped with a variety of weapon and armor, as well as carry out damage-absorbing magic and shield. While these attack strengths vary according to the character's class, the basic attack of the Tarnished can be freely changed according to the situation. By equipping an enemy with the Tarnished's curse, the character can deal devastating damage to the enemy. Tarnished and Felt No matter how powerful the Tarnished is, there is also a Felt close behind the Tarnished. As a companion, the Felt can passively heal the Tarnished's HP and can have a passive bonus to all stats. There is a certain level at which the Felt will appear, and as the level increases, the Felt can deal strong damage through a series of rapid attacks. The combat of the Tarnished is displayed in such a way that it can be understood from either a real-time battle or a gameplay battle. In real time, a horizontal battle screen opens up where you can see the enemy and allies at the same time. When you release the attack button, an attack animation starts, and the attack will be carried out if the timing is just right. In gameplay, you can freely choose to attack when you see an enemy, and the damage inflicted at that time will be applied immediately. Story of the Tarnished Darkness spreads across the world of Calella, the world of fantasy fiction. Those who cherish the past will be dragged by circumstances, and forced to set out on a journey for eternity. They will meet a new era, and undergo various psychological and physical trials.
