The present invention relates to a new and distinct cultivar of Petunia plant, botanically known as Petunia hybrida, and hereinafter referred to by the name 'USPETBH05'. The new Petunia plant is a product of a planned breeding program conducted by the Inventor in Maasdijk, The Netherlands. The objective of the breeding program is to create new compact Petunia plants with numerous unique and attractive flowers. The new Petunia plant is a naturally-occurring whole plant mutation of a proprietary selection of Petunia hybrida identified as code number F-19-14, not patented. The new Petunia plant was discovered and selected by the Inventor as a flowering plant from within a population of plants of the parent selection in a controlled greenhouse environment in Maasdijk, The Netherlands in June, 2014. Asexual reproduction of the new Petunia plant by terminal vegetative cuttings in a controlled greenhouse environment in Maasdijk, The Netherlands since September, 2014 has shown that the unique features of this new Petunia plant are stable and reproduced true to type in successive generations. Maldives, India host last-minute Asian Trophy summit BEIJING - Maldives and India will host the last Asian Trophy workshop, a three-day summit of major Asian nations to be held next week, the Indian foreign ministry announced Wednesday, as diplomats scrambled to schedule dates in the on-again, off-again event. Beijing had earlier refused to host the event, accusing the Maldives of "rushing" the summit. Beijing sees India as its rival in the region, with disputes over the disputed Himalayan region of the Doklam Plateau between the two nations. The last Asian Summit was held in Pattaya, Thailand, in November last year. The new summit was formally announced at the Chinese capital on Tuesday. "The organizers would be the Maldives and India and a handful of other countries," India's foreign ministry spokesman Raveesh Kumar told reporters in Beijing. The Sept. 17-19 summit will be held in the Maldives city of Male, under tight security, and will come just ahead of next year
